OCTAGON THEATRE. OUT AND ABOUT.

Welcome to the large print version of the Octagon Theatre 2019 Season Brochure. In this brochure you'll find details of how to access our events alongside full details of What's On at the theatre.

If you would like more information on planning your visit, please call our friendly box office staff on 01204 520661 or email boxoffice@octagonbolton.co.uk

Meet Lotte Wakeham, Octagon Theatre's new Artistic Director

I'm Lotte, and I'm delighted to be your new Artistic Director.

I moved to Bolton in February; it's been wonderful to start getting to know the town and our fantastic audiences. I want the Octagon to focus on popular, bold and adventurous work, giving you the best theatrical experiences possible. It's a busy time for the Octagon as we prepare to move into our new building in 2020; in the meantime, we've been cooking up some exciting plans to keep you entertained this autumn.

The season will kick off with 3 productions presented in the beautiful theatre at Bolton Library: Beryl written by former Octagon Youth Theatre member Maxine Peake will set the wheels spinning for the Octagon Autumn season. Then there will be the world premiere of a new musical: Seagulls by Beth Hyland.

This coming-of-age story focuses on 4 students in Bolton who form a band, and have their lives changed forever.

Thirdly, I'm delighted we're able to bring you a visiting show, I Wanna Be Yours, from 2 incredible theatre companies: Tamasha and Paines Plough.

We'll finish in swashbuckling style at the University of Bolton Stadium, with the Octagon's brand-new version of Treasure Island for families over the festive season.

Keep an eye out for some extra activities too; we are launching StoryMakers for young families, workshops for teenagers and more of our popular Investigate Days. We'll also be holding Rehearsed Readings of some exciting new scripts to give you a flavour of the future at the Octagon – and we'd love to hear your thoughts.

I hope there'll be something for everyone this season, whether you're an Octagon regular or whether it's your first visit; we look forward to welcoming you.

BERYL

By Maxine Peake

Directed by Kimberley Sykes

Thu 19 September – Sat 19 October 2019

An extraordinary true story of determination, passion and pure grit. Beryl - the greatest woman on two wheels.

After falling ill during her 11+ exam, Beryl is told she won't amount to anything, so she sets out to prove everyone wrong!

Fast-forward several years, and a blossoming workplace romance with charismatic amateur cyclist Charlie Burton leads Beryl to find true love - not only with Charlie but with the thrill and freedom of being on two wheels.

Join us this autumn to discover how Beryl Burton - wife, mother, northern lass – became a record-breaking world champion and a cycling legend.

Written by award-winning actor, writer, and former Octagon Youth Theatre member Maxine Peake, the story of one the world's greatest unsung sporting heroes will be energetically brought to life in the intimate setting of Bolton's Library Theatre.

SEAGULLS

A new musical by Beth Hyland

Directed by Lotte Wakeham

Musical Director James Frewer

Thu 24 October – Sat 16 November 2019

4 students, 1 band and a year where everything changes...

Simon goes out with Masha

Masha is secretly in love with Con

Con loves Nina

and Nina dreams of fame

On the precipice of adult life and feeling that everything and anything is possible, four students in Bolton believe their band SEAGULLS will one day make its mark on the music industry.

But when complicated romances and artistic differences threaten to tear them apart, cracks appear and reality hits hard.

Inspired by Chekhov's The Seagull this brand-new musical brings the classic play into the 21st century, combining live original music with the passion of first love and heartbreak.

Produced in association with the award-winning Middle Child theatre.

"Loosely inspired by Chekhov's The Seagull, this is a punchy 21st century adaptation, featuring live music throughout. I'm thrilled that we're going to present Seagulls in association with the magnificent Middle Child Theatre Company, who specialise in "gig theatre": theatre that makes a noise!" Artistic Director, Lotte Wakeham

A Paines Plough and Tamasha production

I WANNA BE YOURS

By Zia Ahmed

Directed by Anna Himali Howard

Mon 11 November 2019

Ella is from Yorkshire. Haseeb is from London. They order a pizza. House red for Ella. Hot chocolate for Haseeb.

“I think I’m falling in love with you.”

People and playlists. Christmas and Eid. Travelcards and Megabuses. London to Leeds.

Love is more than just a game for two. Especially when there’s an elephant in the room.

A tender, funny, lyrical play about finding love and holding onto it with everything you’ve got. I Wanna Be Yours is the debut play from Zia Ahmed.

“I Wanna Be Yours is a witty and moving new play by rising star Zia Ahmed. Presented by Tamasha, who originally developed East is East, and Paines Plough, who have been making waves nationally with their ROUNDABOUT season.”

FIRST BITES: PLAY READINGS

Join us for three evenings of rehearsed readings of new plays at our home in the Market Place Shopping Centre. We invite you to see our actors perform three new “script in hand” readings, followed by a Q&A. We’d love to hear your thoughts about these scripts, which might one day become full productions.

FAMILY TREES

By Clare Bayley

Fri 15 November 2019

A gripping family drama. Enid, a young university professor in the 1950s, is pushing against the stifling conventions of post-war Britain. She falls in love with Dev, a poet from India. But will their relationship survive? Fast-forward to 2019, and Enid’s grown-up daughter begins to unravel some deep family secrets.

WILT

By Kieran Knowles

Fri 22 November 2019

A funny and moving 'state of the nation' play from north-west playwright Kieran Knowles, about a group of local park rangers. The oak trees in the park are this town's pride and joy, until a rot starts to set in, and things spiral out of control.

BURKAS AND BACON BUTTIES

By Shamia Chalabi and Sarah Henley

Fri 29 November 2019

This comedy, set in Wigan, follows a father daughter relationship over the course of a year. Ashraf is Egyptian, Muslim and a taxi driver. His daughter Shazia is half-Egyptian, half-Wigan and a millennial. Will they be able to see eye to eye?

TREASURE ISLAND

Book by Kate Ferguson

Music and Lyrics by Susannah Pearse

Based on the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Directed by Tim Jackson

Thu 5 – Sat 28 December 2019

The classic tale of buccaneers and buried gold will be sailing into Bolton this Christmas in a rip-roaring new stage adaptation of Treasure Island.

Grownups never pay attention to children like Jim Hawkins. Stuck working in the family Inn, Jim is longing for adventure... could this be the day something exciting finally happens? When Jim meets a mysterious seafaring gentleman, adventure calls and it looks like there might be gold on the horizon.

But once they set sail, things start to look dangerous. Will Jim and friends escape from a gruesome gang of pirates and make their way back to dry land with the treasure?

A fearsomely talented cast of actor musicians alongside some frighteningly brilliant young people from Bolton will help us set sail on our jolly way in a fun filled family adventure bursting with music, mutiny and talking parrots!

HELP US MAKE HISTORY AGAIN

50 years ago, the people of Bolton had a vision. With passion, dedication and a strong belief in the importance of a theatre to our town, they built the Octagon.

Stories are told, memories are made, and lives have been changed here.

We have been proudly making theatre in Bolton for over 50 years, providing opportunities to take part in the arts, make friends, build confidence and grow.

We are a Bolton story that would never have been written without the support and generosity of the people of Bolton and you, our audience.

As a registered charity, we are now asking for your help again. We are building a beautiful new theatre that will be bigger, better and braver than ever before.

Our supporters have so far helped us raise over £800,000... we still have £600,000 to raise to make it happen.

“When I read about sponsoring a seat in the theatre, I thought that was a lovely way of thanking the theatre for all the happy times”

Katy Bayley, Seat Sponsor

“It is so great to watch the Octagon change and grow. It is an honour to donate to the Octagon and we enjoy the giving.”

OCTAGON REIMAGINED

The construction of the largest transformation of the building in our 50-year history is well underway – take a look at ways we'll be changing ahead of reopening in Spring 2020.

- A new two-level café/bar serving locally produced food and drink
- More toilets and a Changing Places Toilet to make us more accessible for all.
- We're keeping our intimate and flexible auditorium the same but there will be new seating, more handrails & improved temperature control.
- A new brighter and open entrance and foyer to welcome you to the building.
- A purpose-built studio for new work & youth and community drama groups.
- A brand new classroom sized learning space.
- The rear of the building will be rebuilt to accommodate new backstage & rehearsals areas, dressing rooms and offices.

Can you help us write the next 50 years?
